

Having trouble Finding Housing because of past problems?

Note: Information provided by the Community Alliance of Tenants is for general educational use only. It is not a substitute for the advice of an attorney.

Here are a few local resources that may be able to help you:

Name of Organization	Phone	What They Do:	Who Qualifies for Services:
Fair Housing Council of Oregon	(503) 223-8295	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - can help you ask for special consideration if your disability (including past substance abuse) is preventing you from getting into housing - can investigate complaints about discrimination in housing 	Anyone
Legal Aid Services of Oregon	(503) 224-4086	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - can provide legal help with housing emergencies like evictions - can help you with a disability-related housing problem - can help you with subsidized housing problems, including getting into HAP housing 	Low income folks (if you qualify for food stamps or most subsidized housing, you qualify for them) in Multnomah County.
Oregon Law Center Pro Bono	(503) 224-2414	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - can give you legal help with non-emergency situations - can help you get certain crimes removed from your record - can help you access your screening and credit information if you are having problems getting that info 	Low income folks (if you qualify for food stamps or most subsidized housing, you qualify for them)
Ready To Rent	(503) 282-7744 x312	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - can give you info about classes and resources that will help you get accepted into housing 	Depends on the specific program
Community Alliance of Tenants' Renters' Rights Hotline	(503) 288-0130 (leave a message)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - can give you legal information and suggestions about problems you are having or had with a landlord/rental homes; can help you find an attorney to give you legal advice 	Any tenant in Oregon who rents their home (not mobile or floating home owners)
Housing Outreach Team	(503) 238-5201 x3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - If you have a mental disability, HOT may provide you with rent assistance and other support to help prevent you from getting evicted, or to find new housing. 	Any Multnomah Co. tenant with a mental disability
Housing Connections	www.housingconnections.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - can give you information on available, affordable, accessible and special needs housing. 	Anyone looking for housing in Clackamas, Clark, Multnomah and Washington Counties